

Examiner Bio.

Hayley Ashfield Predl was originally trained by her mother, Nicole Ashfield. She successfully auditioned for the Bachelor of Arts (Dance) degree at the Queensland University of Technology in 1990 and graduated in 1993. At university, she majored in Choreographic Studies and Dance Analysis and as a freelance choreographer she went to high schools, private colleges and dance studios facilitating workshops and choreographing routines for various projects. Her performance career included working in the commercial dance industry and as an extra with The Australian Ballet.

Hayley commenced teaching full time at the Ashfield Ballet School in 1995 in partnership with Nicole Ashfield and in 2015 took over as studio owner & director.

In November 2023, she sold her studios and closed Ashfield Ballet School after 45 successful years to pursue a new career path. In 1996, Hayley was invited as a guest teacher at the Queensland Dance School of Excellence and in the same year she was awarded a teacher's scholarship by the Australian Institute of Classical Dance, directed by Marilyn Jones O.B.E. to study ballet teaching at the Australian Ballet School in Melbourne. In 2004, Hayley was appointed as an examiner for the Australian Teachers of Dancing. She was also a member of the ATOD Classical Ballet Syllabus Committee revising the new classical ballet syllabus.

Hayley is a third generation dance teacher & examiner and is committed to inspiring students to love the art of dance and always dance to the very best of their ability. She believes the examination process is an important part of every dancer's journey as it encourages the development of so many incredible skills that can be used in every part of their lives.
